Helpful Information for Presenters and Sponsors

About HRMA:

Members of HRMA (Human Resources Management Association of Central Massachusetts) represent a depth of experience and range of disciplines from which human resources professionals can draw advice and share ideas.

The group is comprised of over 150 practitioners and human resources consultants who are committed to developing their skills and advancing the human resources profession. Its goal is to foster adherence to higher standards of performance and greater professionalism in all phases of the human resources profession. Industries represented within HRMA include, Banking, Education, Government, Healthcare, HR Consultants, Human Services, Insurance, Legal Profession, Manufacturing, Not-For-Profit, Retail, Service Organizations, and Utilities.

HRMA is an affiliate of SHRM, the Society for Human Resource Management, which is one of the largest internationally recognized human resources organizations.

Meeting Information:

Most meetings during our program year are either breakfast or lunch meetings and are held at the Worcester Vocational Technical High School at 1 Skyline Drive in Worcester, MA. You will find directions to this facility on the following page. Please note that May and June meetings are usually at a different location. For the most current meeting details, please visit the website at www.hrmacentralma.org.

Breakfast meetings:

Registration opens at 8:15 am. Breakfast and the program begin at 8:30 am. Meeting typically adjourns by 10:30 am.

Lunch meetings:

Registration opens at 11:15 am. Lunch and the program begin at 11:30 am. Meeting typically adjourns by 1:30 pm, with buses lining up at the school between 1:15-1:30. Exiting on time during lunch meetings is important to prevent delays for participants.

The meeting will be cancelled on days that the Worcester Public Schools are cancelled.

Though the school has technology available for use, it is recommended that our presenters who require the use of technology bring their material on a flash drive and their own lap top, when available, to ensure compatibility.

Meeting sponsors and speakers are welcome to sit and enjoy the provided meal with the group before the start of the program. Please make your primary contact aware of any food allergies or dietary needs.

Free parking is available in the lot directly in front of the school, on a first come, first serve basis, and along the side of the school. Alternatively, the parking garage is another option. Please do not park in "reserved parking" spots. Please call or email your primary contact with any questions you have.
